Wimbledon: a unique sporting experience

Every year for two weeks in June and July, Britain is gripped by the 'magic' of Wimbledon. There are many factors that account for this: the lush grass courts, the intimate spectator experience, the ivy-clad Centre Court, the English traditions, the strawberries and cream. It is the event that all players want to win most.

2009 was another memorable year at Wimbledon, concluding with an epic men's final which saw Roger Federer clinch his 6th Wimbledon and 15th Grand Slam title. Make sure you are there in 2010 to watch the magic unfold!

Packages for the Wimbledon Championships 2010

The care and attention shown to guests by the Sportsworld Wimbledon team aims to provide a memorable sporting and cultural experience whilst in England. Now in our 18th year of appointment by the All England Club, Sportsworld's Wimbledon packages include:

Official reserved Wimbledon tickets

Our official status means that all our tickets guarantee great views of the action. We provide a choice of seats on Centre Court and No. 2 Court. Your reserved ticket gives you access to your seat all day, as well as entry to all the 'outside' Courts 3-19.

Use of Sportsworld's exclusive Fairway Village facility

Sportsworld's superb facility - The Village Suite - is located within the Fairway Village complex, a short walk from Centre and No. 2 Court, and offers the best in British hospitality.

Here you will receive a Champagne and Pimms reception, complimentary bar with Champagne throughout the day, an a la carte lunch with wines, traditional afternoon tea with strawberries and cream as well as exceptional customer service from our experienced hostesses and event managers. Extra touches including musical entertainment, full colour TV coverage and air conditioning are also included.

The Village Suite also boasts a tranquil garden setting with outdoor seating areas in which to relax.

Official souvenir merchandise

Take home your own official souvenir merchandise, tournament programme and seat cushion which are all complimentary.

Please note: each year, Sportsworld receives official confirmation of ticket stock from the All England Club one month before The Championships and thus we do not know specific seat rows and numbers before this time. For security reasons, Sportsworld does not mail out any of the Wimbledon tickets reserved for its Wimbledon China Tours programme. Instead, the tickets are issued to guests personally on arrival at the Fairway Village.

Choice of central London hotels

While some opt to camp out under the stars to get in the line for Wimbledon tickets, Sportsworld's three hotels have been carefully selected to provide a range of quality 3-5 star accommodation. All are well regarded and popular with visitors to the UK - centrally located, close to famous landmarks and entertainment options, and above all else, an easy ride on the London Underground to Wimbledon.

If you would like more information on our choice of hotels, please get in touch and we will be happy to send you a brochure.

Transport to and from Wimbledon tennis

All Sportsworld guests are given daily travel cards for zones 1-4 on the London Underground, allowing unlimited use for your days at the Wimbledon tennis.

A Sportsworld private shuttle bus service will greet you at Southfields Tube Station to transfer you to the Fairway Village and back again for your convenience.

Package enhancements

There are many ways you can enhance your Wimbledon experience.

A selection of traditional or specially arranged excursions within London and the UK are available. Whether it's the latest West End Theater to an excursion to Windsor Castle, Stonehenge, or even Scotland, we'll help find the perfect trip for you

Private car transfers are also available. From a private taxi from the airport, to a chauffeur driven Bentley to the gates of Wimbledon.

Please speak to a member of our Wimbledon team to discuss your requirements further.
